Merchandise Mart Properties Inc. (MMPI) promoted Paula Guiliano to senior director of marketing for the Chicago Gift & Home Industry, effective immediately. Guiliano will be responsible for strategic planning and brand development for showroom, exhibitor, buyer programs and The Chicago Market trade shows. Additionally, she will supervise all advertising, public relations, print communications, website, and showroom, exhibitor and buyer relations. Prior to her promotion, Guiliano worked for MMPI as the marketing director for the Building Products Industry. Before joining MMPI she was the director of marketing for Woodfield Shopping Center.

In addition, MMPI promoted Spence Davenport from leasing coordinator to leasing manager. In his new role, Davenport will focus on existing showroom relationships and activity within the Chicago Market. Toni McIntosh, director of leasing, will focus exclusively on attracting new resources to the Chicago Market.
